

BowFlex Parent, Nautilus, Inc. Announces Receipt of Notice of Non-Compliance with NYSE Trading Share Price Listing Rule

09.27.23

VANCOUVER, Wash.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 27, 2023-- Nautilus, Inc. (NYSE: NLS) ("Nautilus" or the "Company") today announced that on September 21, 2023, it received notice (the "Notice") from the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") that the Company is not in compliance with applicable price criteria in the NYSE's continued listing standard set forth in the NYSE Listed Company Manual because the average closing price of the Company's Common Stock (the "Common Stock") was less than $1.00 per share over a consecutive 30 trading-day period. The Notice does not result in the immediate delisting of the Company's common stock from the NYSE.

The Company intends to respond to the NYSE within ten business days of receipt of the Notice of its intent to cure the deficiency. In accordance with NYSE rules, Nautilus has a period of six months following the receipt of the Notice to regain compliance with the minimum share price requirement. The Company may regain compliance at any time within the six-month cure period if on the last trading day of any calendar month during the cure period the Company has a closing share price of at least $1.00 and an average closing share price of at least $1.00 over the 30 trading-day period ending on the last trading day of that month.

Under the NYSE's rules, if the Company determines that it will cure the stock price deficiency by taking an action that will require shareholder approval at its next annual meeting of shareholders, the price condition will be deemed cured if the price promptly exceeds $1.00 per share, and the price remains above that level for at least the following 30 trading days.

The Company's Common Stock will continue to be listed and trade on the NYSE during this period, subject to the Company's compliance with other NYSE continued listing standards. The receipt of the Notice does not affect the Company's business, operations or reporting requirements with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements (statements which are not historical facts) within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements include, but are not limited to, express or implied forward-looking statements relating to the Company's ability to maintain the listing of its Common Stock on the NYSE and the Company's anticipated business and financial performance. All of these forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that may change at any time. Factors that could cause Nautilus, Inc.'s actual expectations to differ materially from these forward-looking statements also include: weaker than expected demand for new or existing products; our ability to timely acquire inventory that meets our quality control standards from sole source foreign manufacturers at acceptable costs; risks associated with current and potential delays, work stoppages, or supply chain disruptions, including shipping delays due to the severe shortage of shipping containers; an inability to pass along or otherwise mitigate the impact of raw material price increases and other cost pressures, including unfavorable currency exchange rates and increased shipping costs; experiencing delays and/or greater than anticipated costs in connection with launch of new products, entry into new markets, or strategic initiatives; our ability to hire and retain key management personnel; changes in consumer fitness trends; changes in the media consumption habits of our target consumers or the effectiveness of our media advertising; a decline in consumer spending due to unfavorable economic conditions; risks related to the impact on our business of the COVID-19 pandemic or similar public health crises; softness in the retail marketplace; availability and timing of capital for financing our strategic initiatives, including being able to raise capital on favorable terms or at all; changes in the financial markets, including changes in credit markets and interest rates that affect our ability to access those markets on favorable terms and the impact of any future impairment. Additional assumptions, risks and uncertainties are described in detail in our registration statements, reports and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the "Risk Factors" set forth in our Annual Report on Form 10-K, as supplemented by our quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. Such filings are available on our website or at www.sec.gov. You are cautioned that such statements are not guarantees of future performance and that our actual results may differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent developments, events, or circumstances, except as may be required under applicable securities laws.
