Safe Harbor Statement

This presentation includes forward-looking statements (statements which are not historical facts) within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including statements concerning the Company's prospects, resources, capabilities, current or future financial trends or operating results, long-term growth capability, demand for the Company’s products, future plans for introduction of new products and the anticipated outcome of new business initiatives, estimates of market size and opportunities for growth, planned capital expenditures, and potential uses of our capital resources, including statements regarding potential share repurchases, acquisitions or dividend programs. Factors that could cause Nautilus, Inc.'s actual results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements include our ability to acquire inventory from sole source foreign manufacturers at acceptable costs, within timely delivery schedules and that meet our quality control standards, availability and price of media time consistent with our cost and audience profile parameters, a decline in consumer spending due to unfavorable economic conditions in one or more of our current or target markets, failure to successfully integrate acquired businesses, an adverse change in the availability of credit for our customers who finance their purchases, our ability to pass along vendor raw material price increases and increased shipping costs, our ability to effectively develop, market and sell future products, our ability to protect our intellectual property, and the introduction of competing products. Additional assumptions, risks and uncertainties are described in detail in our registration statements, reports and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the "Risk Factors" set forth in our Annual Report on Form 10-K, as supplemented by our quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. Such filings are available on our website or at www.sec.gov. You are cautioned that such statements are not guarantees of future performance and that actual results or developments may differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.

FY 2017 Expected to Continue Growth Trend

- Full year guidance of 5% - 7% revenue and operating income growth
  - 2017 expected to be more backend loaded with return to double-digit pace of growth in the second half of 2017
  - First half will be slower vs. prior year due to tougher comps and lower media response rates

- Q1 2017 revenue & operating income in line with guidance
  - Revenue of $113M vs. guidance of $110-$112M and Q1 2016 revenue of $121M. Decline vs. prior year related to lower TreadClimber sales.
  - Operating Income of $13M vs. guidance of $13-$14M and Q1 2016 of $19M. Decline vs. prior year due to lower revenue and increased investment in media and R&D.
